IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The information You provide in this document and through any other documentation, will be relied upon by the insurers to decide whether or not to accept Your insurance as proposed and if so, on what terms.

Every question must be answered fully, truthfully and accurately. If space is insufficient for Your answer, please use additional sheets, sign and date each one and attach them to this document.

If You do not understand or if You have any questions regarding any matter in this document, including these Important Information, please contact Us or Your insurance broker before signing the Declaration at the end of this document.

Unless We have confirmed in writing that temporary cover has been arranged, no insurance is in force until the risk proposed has been accepted in writing by Us and You have paid or agreed to pay the premium.

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract. You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for;
- is common knowledge;
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

EXCESS

The policy provides that You will be required to bear a specified amount of all claims and this is for each and every claim made against You including defence costs. We will let You know when the excess is payable.

The Code Governance Committee (CGC) is an independent body that monitors and enforces insurers' compliance with the Code.

For further information on the Code, please visit www.codeofpractice.com.au

Should You now be a party to such an agreement or be requested to enter such an agreement in the future, please advise Us immediately in writing.
